THE HOME NEWS.

City Council meets Monday night. Organdies, Lawns and Dainties at Ward & Symphon.

Let us show you our line Shirts and Underwear. Ward & Symphon. 100,000 feet pine popular and oak boxing, also a lot of fencing. Must be sold. R. G. Ward.

Ward & Symphon have just received a new lot of Peters' Shoe Co's. Shoes. All the very latest and up-to-date. A look will convince you.

Card of Thanks.
The Commercial Club takes this method of expressing its gratefulness to the ladies who so kindly assisted in preparing for the entertainment last week. The success of the affair was due largely to their kind work, and the members are very thankful, indeed. H. T. Logan, Pres't; J. M. Farra, Sec'y.

Lancaster Wins.
Lancaster friends are very proud of the decision at the Stanford contest in which Miss Theo Hemphill, of this city, was given first prize, a handsome diamond ring. As he opponents were speakers of experience, the honor is all the more appreciated. Miss Hemphill is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. C. Hemphill, and is an exceedingly pretty and attractive young lady.

Court Day.
The farmers having lost so much time recently, very few came in to court Monday, and those here got through with their business and went home in a hurry. Manager Siler tells The Record there were only 75 cattle at the pens, the market dull. Mixed cattle sold at $13, some cows at 2 1/2 and hogs at 5c. A few plug horses went for a song. Only the regular drunks, but they were orderly.

Bradley Heads New Co.
The American Loan and Surety Company, a Kentucky organization, was Wednesday incorporated at Trenton, N. J., with a capital stock of $1,000,000. Ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley is its President. Gov. Bradley left Wednesday night for Louisville, having shipped his office furniture and library last week. The Record extends its best wishes to our former townsman, and will say that while he may now register "of Louisville," yet we all look upon and claim him as a Lancaster man.

Now For It.
Here's your chance to see a game of ball that will equal, if not surpass anything you ever witnessed. Arrangements have been perfected for a game between the fat and lean men of the town, to be played tomorrow, Friday, afternoon at 3 o'clock. Don't miss it. It will be a peach. The teams are as follows:

Fats: W. B. Mason, J. Joseph, Geo. Palmer, T. B. Long, A. H. Bastin, R. A. Stone, Banks Hudson, H. A. B. Marksberry, Tom Wherritt and J. A. Burnside.

Leans: G. B. Swinebroad, R. Kinnaird, Eph Brown, K. F. Postle, J. W. Elmore, John F. Lear, J. C. Thompson, J. H. Patterson, R. A. Burnside and Fred Frisbie.

Don't miss this, the greatest of all games. Extra police will be on hand to protect the umpire. Admission 25 cents, ladies free.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Lancaster Entertains the Louisville Business Men in Royal Style, and Covers Herself With Glory.

Lancaster was in gala attire to meet the Louisville business men, and judging from their comments, succeeded in making their visit enjoyable. The train was met at Richmond by President Hugh Logan, Secretary J. M. Farra, Mayor Robt. Kinnaird, Col. W. S. Ferguson and Louis Landram, who pinned badges on the visitors, gave each a copy of The Record and explained our plan of entertainment. The program given in our last issue was carried out without a hitch. The speech of Gov. Bradley was one of the best we ever heard him make. It was to the point, not too long and touched points which are of greatest interest to Louisville and Central Kentucky. He was followed by President Taylor, who introduced Hon. Marmaduke B. Bowden, who made an excellent talk. The lunch at the Garrard Hotel was a delightful feature of the day, and was highly complimented by the visitors. The Record regrets that lack of space prevents a detailed description of the entertainment, and we will only say that the visit will be of inestimable value to both Louisville and Lancaster, to the first named by bringing our merchants to realize that they ought to stand by the largest city of our state, and to the last named by enlisting the assistance of Louisville's leading business men in our effort to secure better train service and other improvements. The little pitance put up by our people for entertainment will redound ten-fold, and that in a short time.

Lumber for Sale.

A lot of new lumber used in making scaffolds to paint interior of Presbyterian church. Sawed and nailed very little, and is as good as new. Call on D. M. Lackey.

Republicans Nominate.

The republican county committee met at the law office of Lewis L. Walker and nominated the following ticket to be voted for in November: R. A. Burnside, county judge; John M. Duncan, county clerk; J. C. Hendrickson, sheriff; Rice Bengel, jailer; Gabe Greenleaf, coroner; John Green, assessor; Wm. H. Collier, representative. No nominations were made for county attorney and school superintendent.

Will Hang at Danville.

The court of appeals decided that Quinn, the negro who murdered policeman Crum, at Danville, had been given a fair trial and he must abide by the decision of the jury and participate in the necktie party so justly arranged for his special benefit. This execution should be given all up-to-date, finishing touches, as it may prove a warning to others who go about watching a chance to commit murder.

Henry's All Right.

When it was learned last week that the Commercial Club was shy on liquid enthusiasm, Mr. Henry Traylor, the clever distiller, at Gilberts Creek, sent in two cases of his celebrated "Edge-wood," telling the boys to accept it with his compliments. This is among the best whiskey made in this state, and to say the Club appreciated it and the visitors enjoyed it, hardly expresses the case. Better men than Henry Traylor don't grow, and it is impossible to find one with a bigger heart.

Telephone Talk.

One of our citizens has this to say: "It was my good fortune to accompany Mr. A. H. Bastin, the energetic vice-president of the Kentucky Telephone Association, to Crab Orchard, where he went to have some 'phones put up and to look after the interests of his company. He is familiar with every detail of the work, in the field, or in the exchange. He now supervises about 350 telephones, in the Independent system, with about 2,000 connections, and the number is rapidly increasing. He is a home man, full of enterprise, and he is giving a most excellent service, keeping none but polite and accommodating operators. The service is also cheap enough and we should be satisfied to encourage, protect and patronize him and his system."

Exciting Incident.

Huge Rattle Snake Drops on Moving Train Containing Louisville Business Men and Creates Consternation Among The Passengers.

A very unusual and exciting incident occurred on the Louisville Business Men's special train between this city and Richmond last Wednesday morning. The train had been making good time, but slowed up to pass through the long tunnel just above Point Leavell. As it emerged from the smoky, hot hole in the ground, a large rattle snake was seen to drop upon the front platform of a coach next to the baggage car. The reptile had evidently been sunning on the hot rocks and the jar of the heavy train caused it to lose its grip and fall. For a moment it surveyed its surroundings seemed to stretch itself and then made tall tracks into the coach. Only a few gentlemen had noticed his snakeship, and it was soon at the feet of Mr. Thomas Wasson, the clever representative of the Courier Journal. Mr. Wasson was busy using a typewriter and in half the time it has taken to tell it, the snake had commenced to wind itself around Mr. Wasson's leg. By this time the entire coach-load of men were standing on the seats yelling, swearing and giving all kind of advice as to disposing of the reptile and saving Wasson's life. Finally Mr. W. B. Belknap, who had a supply of samples of table cutlery with him, came forward with a long carving knife and as the snake stretched its its neck, Mr. Belknap made a quick stroke and severed its head. The snake measured four feet in length, and when its coils were tightened about Mr. Wasson's leg, his screams were heart-rending. The snake was taken to Louisville and its hide will be mounted and placed in the editorial rooms at the Courier Journal office.

Bank Stock For Sale.

Five shares stock in National Bank of Lancaster for sale privately. Call at The Record office.

On and after July 1, we will do a strictly cash business. Will make it to your interest to get our prices. Thanking for past favors and soliciting your further patronage. Ward & Symphon.

Ice, Ice, Ice.

We are the only dealer here who handles ice in car loads. We sell pure ice, best in the state, we sell same price on wagon and at house. Farmers wanting can buy very low of us in lots from 100 to 1,000 lbs. See us before buying. H. B. Northcott.

The pastor of the Christian church expresses his appreciation of the action on the part of the business houses in closing their doors at 7 o'clock during the recent meeting. He desires to thank them for this helpful co-operation. The merchants of Lancaster are enterprising, wide-awake, and appreciative. They deserve success.

Lecture at the Fork.

Rev. W. M. Anderson will deliver his celebrated lecture, "Why We Fail," at the Fork church Thursday night, July 11, at 7:30 o'clock. He is one of the most prominent and able ministers in the Baptist church, and his lecture has attracted great attention and much favorable comment. If you miss this, you miss a rare treat. Admission, 25 cents. Don't forget the date, July 11.

Seriously Ill in St. Louis.

Mr. Fred P. Frisbie received a telegram Monday morning announcing the serious illness of his brother, Charles, in St. Louis. Charles located in St. Louis about eight months ago, and had a position in Seashol's, a large department store. The message did not state the nature of his illness. He has suffered from asthma for several years, and this is doubtless the cause of the trouble. A later telegram says he is better.

Bridge at Paint Lick.

The officials of Garrard and Madison counties are figuring on building a new bridge at Paint Lick. This is a move that should be carried out without delay. The old wooden structure has about rotted out and is exceedingly dangerous. It is a regular cow pen at night, and dangerous to travelers. A substantial, iron bridge, of sufficient width to permit vehicles to pass should be erected, and the present old flea hatchery torn away. The Garrard Fiscal Court will take up the matter at next meeting.

A Deserved Promotion.

Richmond Climax:—Mr. Shelby Tribble, who for several years past has been a valued attache of the Register office, this city, left this week for Lancaster, to accept the foremanship of the Lancaster Record at a good salary. Mr. Tribble is a steady, reliable, industrious young man, and a capable compositor and his promotion is a deserved one. Knowing him as we do, we congratulate The Record upon securing his services and wish him success in his new field. Mr. Ebert Flora takes Mr. Tribble's place on the Register.

Meeting Closed.

The meeting at the Christian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. B. Moore and Prof. J. Walter Wilson, singing evangelist, closed last Thursday night. The interest continued without any decrease right up to the last night. The crowds that attended the services filled the church to overflowing. There were 17 additions to the church and the meeting was in every way a success. The singing of Prof. Wilson was a great feature of the meeting. His solos were rendered with great power, and it was impossible for the singer to answer all requests that came to him for favorite songs to be repeated. The last night of the meeting was devoted to a lecture by Prof. Wilson upon Chas. M. Sheldon's book, "In His Steps." A large audience heard this lecture and every one was enthusiastic in praise of it. Prof. Wilson gave a splendid resume of Mr. Sheldon's book and illustrated the various scenes depicted by more than one hundred stereopticon views. He also gave an illustrated poem and three or four illustrated songs, closing with the "Holy City"—a fitting climax for the splendid feature. This was a most interesting and ennobling entertainment. It should be given in every city. Prof. Wilson is a cultured christian gentleman and will receive a warm welcome if he ever comes to Lancaster again.

Lancaster Boys in The Soup.
The Lancaster boys went to Crab Orchard last week and were almost annihilated by the ball team at that place. They buckled on their armor again Monday and tackled the Stanford team and were equally badly defeated. Stanford simply walked all over them. Probably they will some day learn that in order to put up a good game they must practice.

Economy.

Mr. Editor:—I think that it would be a saving and much more pleasant for our merchants to close their stores at 7 o'clock, Saturday evenings excepted, until September 1. The receipts, after that hour, will hardly pay for the lights. It can be agreed that each merchant can wait on his customer who lives in the country and comes to town for the purpose of shopping. Let an expression be taken. Merchant.

Happy Druggists.

About the happiest, jolliest set of fellows we have seen lately was the crowd of druggists at Crab Orchard Springs last week. There were about a hundred in the party, and their meeting lasted three days. The first thing in order was to settle all business on hand, and this was quickly done, after which they were out for a good time, and they had it. Manager Willis, of the hotel, spared no pains in holding up his end of the log, and gave them the best in the shop. Mr. Fred P. Frisbie, of this city, was made a member of the executive committee, an honor he duly appreciates.

All kind of machinery repaired at Conn's.

Garrard Man Dies at Harrison.

A Harrison, Tennessee paper says Benjamin F. Bryant, aged 72 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Turner, near Roane avenue in the eastern part of the city Sunday noon. Mr. Bryant had been a resident of Harrison only six months. He was taken suddenly worse at 1 o'clock Sunday morning and died at noon. Mr. Bryant leaves a widow and two daughters. He was born at Bryantsville, Kentucky.

Camp Meeting at Preachersville.

Beginning July 2nd to 14th, Rev. H. C. Morrison, one of Kentucky's greatest pulpits orators and Rev. George W. Young, the orator and temperance lecturer will do the preaching assisted by a number of other Ministers. The singing will be conducted by Prof. George E. Kersey, of Wilmore, Ky., a splendid leader of song and Miss Lizzie Victor, of Middlesboro, Ky., a charming singer with a number of other good singers to assist. This will be the greatest camp meeting ever held in this section of the country, and you are cordially invited to attend. Come to do good and to get good. H. B. Cockrill, J. L. Hutchins, Wm. Sprinkles.
